Our Foundation

Local Stewardship

- ETI Corral 37 has served the Conejo Valley equestrian community since 1978.
- Established to preserve equestrian access, open space, and public riding facilities for future generations.
- After 30 years of community-based stewardship, the partnership with Conejo Recreation & Park District (CRPD) was formalized in 2008 and most recently renewed in 2024
- ETI Corral 37 became a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in 2022.

National Organization

- Part of Equestrian Trails, Inc. (ETI) National, founded 1944
- ETI National provides advocacy, guidance, and support
- Charter: "Dedicated to the Acquisition and Preservation of Trails, Good Horsemanship & Equine Legislation"

Our Vision

- To be a model equestrian organization that preserves and promotes the future of the equestrian lifestyle in the Conejo Valley.
- To maintain Conejo Creek Equestrian Park as a safe, vibrant, and sustainable community hub for all disciplines.
- We aim to expand park usage, support youth participation, and create an affordable show environment where riders of all levels can learn, compete, and thrive.

Our Values

- Stewardship: Responsibly maintain facilities for the benefit of the community.
- Safety: Prioritize the well-being of horses, riders, and visitors.
- Community: Foster connections among riders, volunteers, families, and the public.
- Integrity: Uphold transparency, fairness, and accountability.
- Education: Preserve heritage while fostering learning and growth for future generations.
- Volunteerism: Recognize that success depends on the dedication and spirit of volunteers.

Our Mission

- We preserve the equestrian lifestyle, heritage, and traditions of the Conejo Valley.
- We partner with CRPD to maintain and enhance Conejo Creek Equestrian Park, the only public facility in our area.
- We provide safe, accessible, and inclusive programs for riders, youth, families, and the community.
- We engage volunteers and community members to support park care and events.
- We foster education and growth for riders of all levels through clinics, shows, and community events.
- We ensure long-term stewardship so the park remains a vibrant community resource.
